Hello!

We wanted to let you know about a unique opportunity to support arts and culture in Parker.

On May 10 over 300 middle and high school students, their teachers, family and friends will come together for the Parker Arts Shakespeare Festival. The Parker Arts, Culture and Events (PACE) Center will be the stage in which students from across Parker will compete to present Shakespeare's iconic works. The Parker Arts Shakespeare Festival will bring together middle and high school students, classic literature and the performing arts in ways not typically available as part of in-school programming.

This event is free for schools to participate – and this is where you can help! Several sponsorship opportunities are available that align your business with event participants while also making the arts accessible to Parker's public school students.

Below is an overview of available sponsorship levels:

|------------------|---------------------------------|
| ➤ $1,200 | Presenting Event Sponsor |
| ➤ $750 | Ceremony Sponsor |
