CREATIVE CODING

Ages: 5-11

Come code with Athena! Our unique project-based camp is designed to allow young students (K-5) to develop their creative storytelling abilities, and then gives them the opportunity to bring them to life through coding! Every session begins with a creative writing workshop, where students brainstorm and workshop ideas for stories. We then give them the opportunity to animate them using MIT's block-based Scratch, and Python through Minecraft Educational. Students have a blast, and learn plenty of professional programming practices, like how to use binary operators, conditional statements, sequencing and commenting practices, and loops. Through this, we hope to expose them to programming in a creative, fun, and innovative way.

SUMMER THEATER

DIALECTS AND CHARACTER BUILDING

Ages: 13-18

For this class previous experience with dialects is recommended (but not required) and will focus on integrating dialect work into creating an authentic character on stage. Students in the class will each select a monologue, in any dialect, to work on throughout the course. We will workshop the monologues using many different voice and speech techniques, as well as a character study to ensure all elements come together to maintain integrity to the playwright's text and the historical and geographical context. The class will culminate in a showcase for classmates.

Instructor: Miranda Guettlein

Location: PACE Center

Fee: $125 R/$137 NR

AMERICAN ENGLISH DIALECTS

Ages: 13-18

Class will cover dialects from the Northeast, South, and Midwest, decided upon by class members and take a text-based approach, meaning we will practice these dialects using theatrical texts written for the dialect being studied. This course will also offer an introduction to phonetics and phonology (the mechanisms of speech sounds, and the ways in which different dialects combine these sounds) which will cover basic IPA (International Phonetic Alphabet) and physiological explanations of the vocal mechanisms. Actors will practice dialects using texts of their choosing and offer feedback to one another in order to help train the ear as well.

ON POINTE SCHOOL OF DANCE FALL CLASS SCHEDULE

At On Pointe we dance to express ourselves, find an outlet for creativity, and connect our minds and bodies. Some of the other benefits are increased self-esteem, long-lasting friendships, and good health habits.

Fall registration opens in July. Classes start in August. Classes can be found online at www.ParkerArts.org/education. Contact onpointeschooldance@gmail.com for questions.

Our dancers have the unique experience of performing on the PACE Center stage in our end of semester recital, Clara's Dream, on Nov. 30. (*Some classes do not participate in this recital and are described as such). A $35 costume rental fee is made payable to On Pointe the first week of class. Classes start August 10 and end December 11. There are no classes on September 7 (Labor Day), October 31 (Halloween) or November 25, 26, 27 (Thanksgiving).
